

My authorities have instructed me to request consultations with the Government of the People's Republic of China ("China") pursuant to Articles 1 and 4 of the Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes, Article XXII:1 of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 ("GATT 1994"), and Articles 4 and 30 of the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures ("SCM Agreement"), with regard to certain measures providing subsidies contingent upon export performance to enterprises in several industries in China.

It appears that China provides export-contingent subsidies through a program establishing "Foreign Trade Transformation and Upgrading Demonstration Bases" ("Demonstration Bases") and "Common Service Platforms". Demonstration Bases are industrial clusters of enterprises in several Chinese industries, including the textiles, agriculture, medical products, light industry, special chemical engineering, new materials, and hardware and building materials industries. Common Service Platforms are service suppliers designated by China to provide services to enterprises in Demonstration Bases. China designates an industrial cluster of enterprises in a particular industry as a Demonstration Base and then provides export-contingent subsidies to the enterprises located in the Demonstration Base. These subsidies include the provision of discounted or free services through Common Service Platforms or the provision of cash grants. In addition, it appears that China provides certain other export-contingent subsidies to Chinese manufacturers, producers, and farmers.

The Demonstration Base / Common Service Platform program and the export subsidies at issue are reflected in legal instruments that include, but are not limited to, the following, operating separately or collectively, as well as any amendments or related, successor, replacement, or implementing measures:

Because the Demonstration Base / Common Service Platform program and the export subsidies at issue, as reflected in the instruments listed above, provide subsidies contingent upon export performance to enterprises located in China, the measures appear to be inconsistent with Article 3.1(a) of the SCM Agreement, and China appears to have acted inconsistently with Article 3.2 of the SCM Agreement.

In accordance with Article 4.2 of the SCM Agreement, a statement of available evidence is attached to this request for consultations.
