

Interagency Environment Committee for Monitoring and Enforcement of the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA)

On February 28, 2020, President Donald Trump formally established the Interagency Environment Committee for Monitoring and Enforcement of the USMCA (“the Committee”) by Executive Order 13907. The Committee is composed of the U.S. Trade Representative as Chair, the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the U.S. Forest Service, the Environmental Protection Agency, the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the Department of State, the Department of Justice, the Department of the Treasury, and the United States Agency for International Development.

Any person or group that would like to provide information for consideration by the Committee concerning monitoring and enforcement should submit it to USMCAenvironment@ustr.eop.gov.