

Promoting Supply Chain Resilience
New York, New York Public Hearing

On May 28, 2024, the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative convened a public hearing on Promoting Supply Chain Resilience in New York, New York. The hearing was hosted by the General Services Administration.

USTR received testimony from and posed questions to representatives of labor unions; civil society organizations, and companies and trade associations covering a range of sectors, including pharmaceuticals and logistics. The testimony included discussion of worker-centered trade policies, the U.S. Foreign Trade Zone program, recycling of critical minerals, and affordable medicines.

A transcript of the hearing will be posted online at USTR's Supply Chain Resilience web page.

USTR appreciates the contributions of all stakeholders who participated in the hearing. More information can be found on our website here.
