PROTOCOL OF AMENDMENT
TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA – ARGENTINE REPUBLIC
AGREEMENT ON RECIPROCAL TRADE AND INVESTMENT

The United States of America and the Argentine Republic (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties"),

CONSIDERING the Agreement between the United States of America and the Argentine Republic concerning the United States of America – Argentine Republic Agreement on Reciprocal Trade and Investment, signed in Washington, D.C. on February 5, 2026 (hereinafter "ARTI");

RECALLING Article 6.2 of the ARTI, which addresses amendments to the ARTI thereof;

RECOGNIZING the need to adapt the ARTI to the evolution of circumstances since its signing; and

DESIRING to amend the ARTI in accordance with Article 6.2 thereof, with a view to ensuring that the ARTI continues to reflect the evolving circumstances and the interests of both Parties,

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE I

Section 1 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Tariffs and Quotas

1. Argentina shall apply a rate of customs duty on an originating good of the United States as set out in Schedule 1 to Annex I.

2. The United States shall apply tariff treatment for originating goods of Argentina as set out in Schedule 2 to Annex I.

ARTICLE II

Annex I, Schedule 2, Schedule of the United States – General Notes shall be amended to read as follows:

Annex I

Schedule 2

Schedule of the United States

General Notes

1. The provisions of this Schedule are generally expressed in terms of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS), and the interpretation of the provisions of this Schedule, including the product coverage of subheadings of this Schedule, shall be governed by the General Notes, Section Notes, and Chapter Notes of the HTSUS. To the extent that provisions of this Schedule are identical to the corresponding provisions of the HTSUS, the provisions of this Schedule shall have the same meaning as the corresponding provisions of the HTSUS.

2. The United States commits to give favorable consideration to Argentina's commitments under this Agreement in future tariff actions, except for actions under Title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930, section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, and section 201 of the Trade Act of 1974, to the extent consistent with domestic law.

3. The United States commits to provide the most-favored-nation rate of duty in effect to originating goods of Argentina set out in Schedule 2. For greater certainty, this paragraph shall be applied consistently with Title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930, section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, and sections 201 and 301 of the Trade Act of 1974.

4. With regard to any tariff action resulting from an investigation under section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974, the United States intends to take into account all information available related to the efforts Argentina has taken or is taking to implement relevant commitments under this Agreement in determining what, if any, action to take or modify, as appropriate.

ARTICLE III

The amendments set forth in this Protocol shall form an integral part of the ARTI and shall be read and interpreted together with the ARTI.

ARTICLE IV

1. This Protocol shall enter into force 60 days after the date on which the Parties have notified each other that their respective internal procedures necessary for the entry into force of this Protocol have been completed, provided that the ARTI has entered into force on that date.

2. If the ARTI has not yet entered into force on the date on which the Parties have completed their respective internal procedures, this Protocol shall enter into force on the same date as the ARTI.

ARTICLE V

This Protocol shall remain in force for the duration of the ARTI and shall constitute an integral part thereof.

ARTICLE VI

The provisions of the ARTI, as amended by this Protocol, shall continue to apply in accordance with the terms and conditions established therein.
