

Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) Agreement

Consultations with Stakeholders: An Integral Part of the Process

The Office of the United States Trade Representative values its close collaboration with stakeholders and U.S. Congress in developing its negotiating objectives for the TPP. The United States has launched a 50-state outreach plan seeking input on objectives for the negotiations.

Below are the names of USTR's lead negotiators for TPP. Please share your input on TPP with our negotiators by contacting us by email at FN-USTR-TPPOutreach@ustr.eop.gov.

ROLE	NAME
Overall Leads
Lead Negotiator	Barbara Weisel
Deputy Lead Negotiator	David Bisbee
Secretariat	Karl Ehlers
Chapter Leads
Industrial Goods	Sushan Demirjian
Agriculture	Mary Latimer
Textiles	Gail Strickler
SPS	Jane Doherty
TBT	Jeff Weiss
Government Procurement	Mark Linscott
Customs	Jason Bernstein
Rules of Origin	Jason Bernstein
Trade Remedies	Eleanor Shea
Competition	David Bisbee Arun Venkataraman
Intellectual Property Rights	Stanford McCoy
Capacity Building	Mary Estelle Ryckman Elena Bryan
Investment	Daniel Bahar
Services	Daniel Watson
Financial Services	Kimberly Claman Mary Beasley
Telecommunications	Jonathan McHale
E-Commerce	Jonathan McHale
Environment	Mark Linscott
Labor	Lewis Karesh
Lead Lawyer Legal/Institutional Issues	Dan Hunter

Horizontal Issue Leads
Regional Integration	Barbara Weisel
Regulatory Coherence	Mark Linscott
Development	Mary Ryckman
Competitiveness	Everett Eissenstat
SMEs	Sushan Demirjian
Policy Integration	Janis Lazda
Transparency	Janis Lazda
Living Agreement	Barbara Weisel
Country Leads
Australia	David Bisbee
Brunei	Karl Ehlers
Chile	Michelle Carillo
New Zealand	David Bisbee
Peru	Michelle Carillo
Singapore	David Bisbee
Vietnam	David Bisbee