SUMMARY: Effective September 24, 2018, the U.S. Trade Representative imposed additional duties on goods of China with an annual trade value of approximately $200 billion as part of the action in the Section 301 investigation of China's acts, policies, and practices related to technology transfer, intellectual property, and innovation. The U.S. Trade Representative initiated an exclusion process for the $200 billion action in June 2019 and issued 14 product exclusion notices under this action. The product exclusions granted under these notices are scheduled to expire on August 7, 2020. The U.S. Trade Representative previously decided to consider a possible extension for up to 12 months of particular exclusions granted under the initial 11 product exclusion notices and has now decided to consider a possible extension for up to 12 months of particular exclusions granted under the remaining product exclusion notices. The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) invites public comment on whether to extend particular exclusions.

Effective September 24, 2018, the U.S. Trade Representative imposed additional 10 percent duties on goods of China classified in 5,757 full and partial subheading of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) with an approximate annual trade value of $200 billion. See 83 FR 47974, as modified by 83 FR 49153. In May 2019, the U.S. Trade Representative increased the additional duty to 25 percent. See 84 FR 20459. On June 24, 2019, the U.S. Trade Representative established a process by which U.S. stakeholders could request exclusion of particular products classified within an eight-digit HTSUS subheading covered by the $200 billion action from the additional duties. See 84 FR 29576 (the June 24 notice).

The June 24 notice required submission of requests for exclusion from the $200 billion action no later than September 30, 2019, and noted that the U.S. Trade Representative periodically would announce decisions. As of May 28, 2020, the U.S. Trade Representative has issued 14 notices of product exclusions under the $200 billion action. These exclusions are scheduled to expire on August 7, 2020.

B. Possible Extensions of Particular Product Exclusions

On May 6, 2020, USTR requested comments concerning the possible extension for up to 12 months of particular exclusions granted under the initial 11 product exclusion notices under the $200 billion action. See 85 FR 27011 (the May 6 notice). The U.S. Trade Representative has now decided to consider a possible extension for up to 12 months of particular exclusions granted under the final three product exclusion notices under the $200 billion action. Accordingly, USTR invites public comments on whether to extend particular exclusions granted under the following notices of product exclusions:

- 85 FR 23122 (April 24, 2020)
- 85 FR 27489 (May 8, 2020)
- 85 FR 32094 (May 28, 2020)

Comments on exclusions granted under the initial 11 product exclusion notices will not be considered on this docket and must be submitted according to the May 6 notice on Docket Number USTR–2020–0015. For exclusions amended or corrected by a later issued notice, parties should provide their extension comments on the docket corresponding to the initial notice of product exclusions.

USTR will evaluate the possible extension of each exclusion on a case-by-case basis. The focus of the evaluation will be whether, despite the first imposition of these additional duties in September 2018, the particular product remains available only from China. In addressing this factor, commenters should address specifically:

- Whether the particular product and/or a comparable product is available from sources in the United States and/or in third countries.
- Any changes in the global supply chain since September 2018 with respect to the particular product or any other relevant industry developments.
- The efforts, if any, the importers or U.S. purchasers have undertaken since September 2018 to source the product from the United States or third countries.

In addition, USTR will continue to consider whether the imposition of additional duties on the products covered by the exclusion will result in severe economic harm to the commenter or other U.S. interests.
